WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN STYLES AND PATTERNS IN TERMS OF SOFTWARE ARCHITECTURE?

ARCHITECTURE STYLE

An architecture Style focuses on the architecture approach, with more lightweight guidance on when a particular style may or may not be useful.

ARCHITECTURE PATTERN

An architecture Pattern is its focus on the problem and context as well as how to solve the problem in that context.